How Inflation Hits Your Savings

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman Sentinels of the Republic

"The very man who has the deepest interest in sound currency is the man who earns his daily bread by his daily toil."

Daniel Webster said that nearly a century ago. His statement was true in his time, it was true years earlier, and it is true today.

France proved its verity as early as 1795, when currency inflation forced workers and wage earners to pay the equivalent of $9 for a pound of bread and of $40 for a bushel of potatoes.

Germany proved it shortly after the World War when inflation wiped out utterly the average worker's savings, and sky-rocketed the prices of everything save the barest necessities of life far beyond his reach.

Russia proved it when her revolutionary leaders used inflation to help drag every worker down to a state of regimented and dependent penury.

In every instance currency inflation hurt the worker and helped the speculator. Always it crushes the thrifty and exalts the gambler. How?

It achieves this effect not by reducing the number of dollars in the earner's pay-envelope or savings account or insurance estate, but by reducing the actual purchasing power of those dollars.

It means that out of the same income—or savings—he must pay far more for food and clothes and shelter and everything else he buys.

That's fine for the well-heeled speculator who profits by buying in a low market and selling at inflated prices. But it's hard on the worker—or on his widow and children if he has entrusted their future to insurance or savings funds accounts, as most American wage-earners do.

How can the average worker and citizen escape this menace?

Well, as history has proved, the blight of inflation descends on a nation in one of two ways. It may be adopted deliberately as a method of raising prices. But more often it comes as a result of straining government resources through extravagance and debt.

Force the politicians to eliminate waste and the piling up of public debt—and you remove this threat at the earnings, the savings and the security of every worker and his family.

Water Luncheon Scheduled Soon

In the furtherance of the drive to give Menlo Park and vicinity water from the Tetch-Hetchy supply, Mr. J. H. Sullivan, chairman of the Public Relations Committee on the Water Question, announces that a luncheon will be held at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel at San Mateo at 12 o'clock noon, September 22. Mayors of cities, presidents of the Chambers of Commerce and public officials will attend and discuss ways and means to carry out the program for Hetch- Hetchy water. Only a limited number of seats are available

The following statement comes from San Jose and plainly shows the neecssity of immediate and cooperative action to save this section from the devastating effects of using well water for municipal supplies. Hetch-Hetchy water should be used for all domestic purposes, leaving the water in the gravel stratas for the agricultural districts.

Continuous dry weather and heavy irrigation after an early fruit harvest here would have produced a water famine in the Santa Clara Valley today, had it not meen for new water conservation district reservoirs, according to the statement made by district engineers, who revealed at a meeting of the directors today that "key" wells in the valley have sunk to new low levels in the last few weeks.

Other Bible citations will include: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: . . . And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, experience; and experience, hope; And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost, wsich is given unto us" (Romans 5: 1, 3-5).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The atonement is a hard problem in theology, but its scientific explanation is, that suffering is an error of sinful sense which Truth destroys, and that eventually both sin and suffering will fall at the feet of everlasting love" (p. 23).

John Shortridge, popular and well known son of Senator and Mrs. S. Shortridge his accepted a responsible position in Bakersfield. His Menlo Park friends wish him every success.

Local Bank Will Move On Monday

One of the most recent important bank developments on the Peninsula will occur on Monday, October 19, when American Trust Company's office in Redwood City opens for business.

Tracing its history through predecessor banks back to 1854, American Trust Company is one of the oldest of California banks. Iits deposits of over 225 million dollars make it one of the country's major banking institutions. From its head office in San Francisco, its system of offices radiates to all populous parts of Nortehn California.

The new Redwood City office is one of four on the Peninsula, the others being situated at Broadway, Burlingame and Palo Alto. Location of the Redwood City office is at 2529 Broadway, where complete banking facilities will be available,

Acorns Trounce Santa Clara Eleven

Entering their second game of the season as underdogs, the Menlo Hi football team came through to triumph over the Santa Clara eleven on the rival field last Friday to the tune of 13 to 0.

After going scoreless for the first quarter, the locals drew their first blood during the second stanza of play when Lucas dropped a pass into the arms of Merritt who rambled over the goal line after a 20-yard run.

After the start of the second half of the game, Menlo put on a drive that carried them from far back in their own territory to within scoring distance. At this point Durkee took the ball and scored on a well-executed line drive to bring the score up to 13 to 0. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful.

After these two exhibitions of smooth play, the Acorns settled down to protect their lead for the rest of the game. Among the outstanding players on the field were McKellar, Durkee, Merritt, Lucas, Shattuck and Graham.

Drought Aid

EDITORIAL

It is about time that something was being done about the reckless and careless methods employed by automobile drivers in the indentation or parking strip in front of the new Maloney Building on the highway.

As late as this morning a lady driving a sedan rushed past two pedestrians and missed injuring or killing one of them by a scant inch or two. She had nearly the whole space to drive in at that.

When approached and asked why she drove so close she innocently asked, "so close to whom?"

When told who the parties that had the narrow escape were, she replied, "I did not see you!"

To our mind is it about time that these drivers who "DON'T SEE" pedestirans should be given a lesson. If they cannot see grown people, how can our children's lives be, even in a small measure, safe? .....

Menlo Park has two or three very bad spots where traffic accidents are liable to happen at any time if the utmost caution is not observed. A human life is a precious thing that once taken cannot be restored. Why take it? Then again injuries that last a life time may be inflicted, and no amount of sorrow or money can some times restore the health and strength of an injured person.

Give this matter some thought, you that drive, and try and be careful of others. Remember those that walk have as many rights as those that ride, and little children have even more rights.

We do not wish to be hard on any one, but ask that something be done by our city officials to protect life on the streets of our fair city.

C. A. Buck Is Supervisor Candidate

Supporters of Mayor C. A. Buck of Burlingame for the office of County Supervisor for Fifth District, cite the fact that his many years of public life, coupled with his successful business career, warrants his election to the important office on the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

Fifteen years service in civic affairs of the City of Burlingame, 8 of which have been as Mayor of that one of the largest cities in point of population in the entire county, and one of the most progressive communities, with a percapita tax of but $9.64 as compared to the average cost of government of $20.54 for cities of like size in California, and all his services without compensation, is ample proof, state his supporters, of his characteristic public spirit.

Mayor Buck was the prime mover in the organization of the present Peninsula Division of the League of California Municipalities, and was its first president. During his long residence in San Mateo County he has found time, aside from his business responsibilities, to act efficiently as chairman of many of the most important committees of his city's government.

His public minded approach to public problems, his impartial unselfish consideration of maaters pretaining to the best interests of the citizens, and his blunt manner of expressing his opinion, with the courage of his convictions, stamps him as anything but a "yes" man, say those who know him.

Mayor Buck, point out his thousands of friends and supporters in Burlingame and throughout the county, is truly a man of the people, a public spirited citizen who is well deserving of the office to which he now aspires.

He has absolutely no personal ax to grind, state his supporters, nor has he any personal grievances to air, should he be elected to office. Not being a politician, he has made no trade or promises with any particular political group, nor with any member of the present official family.

Heritage of Debts

We must remember that every time the government spends a dollar, that dollar will have to be paid by us or we must pass the debt on to be paid by our children. No parents like to leave their children a heritage of debts and mortgages.--Alf M. Landon.

The Auxiliary met in the Legion Hall on Oak Grove avenue on Tuesday evening. After the business session the president introduced Fire Chief Thos. Cuff of the Menlo Park Fire Department, who gave a very interesting and instructive talk on Fire Prevention.

The next meeting will be a social affair. Mrs. Sarah Moore and Mrs. Irene Boone will arrange a program and refreshments will be served.

The Juniors of the Legion Auxiliary will hold their installation of officers on October 23 in the Auditorium of the Grammar School on El Camino Real, at 8 p. m. Relatives are cordially invited.

The delegates and alternates are notified that the District Meeting of the 26th district of the State of California for American Legion Auxiliaries will be held in San Mateo on November 20, with the San Mateo Unit as hostess.

Sequoia High Basketball Teams Win Two Games

Playing their first game away from home, the Sequoia Union High School 110's and 120's basketball teams defeated Burlingame High in two wild contests October 9, at the Burlingame gymnasium.

Coming back after their defeat by Palo Alto, the Cherobbee 110's showed what they were really capable of by taking a 18-17 win over the "Blingum" 10's for the first time this season. Ed Davenport led the scoring parade by ringing up 9 points for his evenings work and Harold Reese was next with 5 points. The 120's game proved to be just that—for the Cherokee 120's. They breezed through a 29-14 affair which showed Coach Day Dimick using his entire squad, after taking out his first string early in the second quarter. Captain Merton Crockett had his eye and contributed 7 points to help make it two straight for the Sequoians in league competition. Coach Dimick stated that he was greatly pleased with the showings of his two teams. They will meet South San Francisco tonight at South San Francisco.

Landon Pledges Farm Security

Wants Economy of Plenty, Not Scarcity; Promises Drouth Aid.

DES MOINES, Iowa.—"I believe the American farmer should be a lord on his own farm," Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas told a capacity crowd at the State Fair grounds here, in a speech that was a complete assertion of his belief in the economics of plenty, as opposed to the Roosevelt administration's economics of scarcity.

Gov. Landon's solution of what he termed a "national problem" and not simply a "farm problem" was founded directly upon the Republican party's platform. He pledged himself to support of the family type farm and to cash benefit payments limited to the production level of such a farm, to give agriculture an equal footing with industries protected by the tariff. He promised to take care of farmers hit by drouth.

He committed himself to the fulfillment of all contracts made with farmers by the present administration. He promised to call upon the statesmen of both parties to work with agricultural leaders in the preparation of new legislation, if he is elected. And going beyond the bounds of the platform, he advocated the fullest possible development of crop insurance.

Pledges Benefit Payments.

"All the farmer asks," said Gov. Landon, "is that his income be on a parity with the rest of the nation, that he may enjoy the same standard of life, that his home be made secure, and that he be able to build up a reserve for the future.

"I know that these aims cannot be realized overnight. Miracles are no more common in Washington than they are in Des Moines. To get a real solution we must have a well-rounded program.

"If I am elected," Gov. Landon continued, "I shall fulfill all outstanding obligations made by the present administration with the American farmer. By this I mean that those who have carried out their end of the bargain will receive the checks due them.

"Those of our farmers hard hit by the drouth will be generously provided for until they can raise a crop. This means the continuation of relief checks!"

Would Offset Foreign Competition.

Farmers producing a normally exportable surplus of such staple products as hogs, wheat, cotton and tobacco are handicapped by tariff protections which are effective only when there is a shortage, Gov. Landon said.

"The Republican party," declared Gov. Landon, "proposes to offset these disadvantages by the payment of cash benefits. These cash benefits will be limited to the production level of the family type farm.

"As part of the plan for removing the depression effect of surpluses I

Yep, it's Fred Astaire, nimble-toed comedian in "Swing Time," with Ginger Rogers co-starred, playing at the Stanford this weekend.

There is a good strong screen fare on the bill at the Varsity Theatre with all the ingredients that combine for popularity.

'His Brother's Wife," produced by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, with W. S. Van Dyke directing, brings Robert Taylor and Barbara Stanwick to the screen in a spectacular romance. That alone is of striking significance.

Saturday's fracas was one of the roughest games I have ever seen. The way those L. B. J. C. boys would "operate" was much too obvious.

"Red" Kelly was slated to be the ref., but "fizzled" out because of a cold. Evans is the "gent" that got bounced by Herb Dana for reasons unknown. They were certainly made clear Saturday.

My own personal opinion is that if this guy Evans would quit thinking about running the Santa Clara-Saint Mary's games and spend a little time noticing "unnecessary roughness" neither team would have suffered the serious injuries they did.

So much for Evans. Somebody wanted to give Herb Dana a big six, but Clarke passed up the idea.

From all reports picked up by car or by eye it's a certain fact that this Modesto team the Oaks play tonight is one of the best in the conference.

In the last two games the Oaks have been given at least an even chance to pull a victory out of the well known bag, but I am afraid that tonight we can't even give Dunker's boys a 60-40 chance. These valley boys are just a bit too good for the Oaks.

VOTERS:
You Can and Should Kill This Tax

Defeated once, the old Sales Tax on Food is back again in disguise... along with added taxes on other necessities of life

On your November ballot, it masquerades as a "Retail Store License"-Proposition #22.

But brought down to cases, it is a hidden sales tax on food and other necessities. A tax for the consumer to pay in higher prices.

It charges individual stores $1.00 a year for the right to do business. It taxes chain stores $500.00 for each store over nine. But it is you who will really pay.

For, as the U. S. Federal Trade Commission states...

"If the ability to undersell, based on greater efficiency or on elimination of credit and delivery cost, is destroyed by taxation, it is the consuming public which will really pay the tax and not the chain."

Why? Because four out of five chain stores do not make enough profit to cover the tax.

For chain stores operate on a small profit. They eliminate middlemen's profits and unnecessary in-between expenses. The savings they make by operating efficiently are passed on to you in prices 10% below the average. The Harvard (University) School of Business Research states these to be the facts.

Thus chain stores must raise their prices or go out of business. If they raise prices, you will pay the tax.

If they go out of business, their competitors can raise prices even more—and you will pay.

Further, this tax is admittedly not for revenue purposes. It is a subsidy for wasteful business methods—at your expense.

So if you think that chain store competition helps to keep all prices in line with your pocketbook—if you are opposed to higher taxes on foods and other necessities—vote NO and keep prices low.

For no matter what name they give it ...no matter how cleverly they disguise it...22 is a tax on you—VOTE NO!

22 IS A TAX ON YOU—VOTE NO!

"Stone Wall" Balks Long Beach Drive

In one of the roughest games played this season in any league, the Menlo Oaks held a strong Long Beach eleven to a scoreless tie last Saturday at Stanford.

Suffering the greatest from injuries was Walt O'Neil who, after playing one quarter of outstanding ball, was removed with a rib injury to the hospital and an emergency operation was performed. From the latest reports Walt is resting easily. Also injured, but less seriously is Jim Wilson who is laid up with a leg injury, Jim Tressel suffered a rib injury and Musy is sporting a bad cut over his right optic.

Lack Goal Push

The game itself was hard fought all the way through. Menlo and Long Beach both had opportunities to score, but lacked that final fire. The southerners came closest to 6 points in the third quarter when they had the ball on the Oak 2 yard line and 4 downs to make the tally. In each successive try they met a Menlo "stone wall" and the ball was given the Dunkermen on downs.

Hogan Played Well

Outstanding, as usual, was Ray Hansen who played one of his best games this seaon. His passes to Wilson were good for long gains and undoubtedly that combination will go far.

All the Oaks played their hardest game Saturday and probably one of the roughest.

Best Bets Tomorrow

California and UCLA. Cal's at home and will be winner.
Purdue over Chicago.
Colgate and Tulane. Figure boys from south will win.
Columbia over Virginia Military Inst. with ease.
Dartmouth will "dump" Brown.
Army and Harvard. Kinda hard—favor Army—may be tie.
Iowa over Illinois.
Minnesota to down Michigan.

In the backfield, John Hogan turned in one of the best games at full we have seen. Jim Wilson at half also played a good gome. In the line Neupert and Tressel were tops as tackles. "Red" Robinson at center and Musy at guard are deserving of mention.

The many friends of Eddie Feeley are sorry to learn of his illness at his home on Menlo avenue.

propose an amendment to the federal warehousing act so that reserves of feed, such as corn, can be carried on the farm.

"Under this amendment the farmer who stores his grain on the farm, in such a way as to make it insurable, will be entitled to a federal warehouse receipt. He will then be eligible to borrow from any banking agency. He will enjoy the same credit facilities as are available to the owners of grain stored in terminal markets. The grain would be stored on the farm, ready for use or sale at any time the farmer cares to take up the loan."

Suggests Crop Insurance.

Gov. Landon then took up the matter of crop insurance, upon which Kansas Republican farm leaders have been working for some time. "We realize that there are difficulties," he said. "But insurance companies are writing policies today covering risks that they did not consider feasible a few years ago."

Here Gov. Landon declared that he could not agree with a policy like that of the AAA, which attempts permanent control of American agriculture from Washington. "I cannot agree with the President," he said. "I believe the American farmer should be 'a lord on his own farm'."

He charged that the administration, after four years, was still without a workable plan for agriculture. "It's right back where it started from!" he said. "Soil conservation—real conservation—is a subject close to my heart."

Gov. Landon reminded his listeners that two years ago he had suggested to the Roosevelt administration a comprehensive program of joint federal and state action, but that it had not been adopted.

Gov. Landon said the country's 34 billion dollar debt under President Roosevelt "can be paid only by taxation if this is to remain an honest government. Taxes add to the cost of everything and the farmer is so situated that he cannot escape their penalty. Further, the taxes reduce the ability of the consumer to buy the products of the farm. The Republican party proposes to put an end to the present waste and extravagance."

Loans Add 400 Million to Roosevelt Deficit

WASHINGTON. — Fresh borrowing added 400 million dollars to the deficit of the Roosevelt administration in mid-September, according to an announcement by Henry Morgenthau, Jr., secretary of the treasury. The addition might reach a total of 440 millions, he admitted.

The United States deficit on Sept. 9, before the new borrowing, was 414 million 551 thousand. During President Roosevelt's administration the national debt increased from 21 billion to more than 33 billions.

For Not Growing Rice

President Roosevelt paid 19 rice growers more than $25,000 each, one of them receiving a check for $59,000. All of that for not growing rice.

COUNTY FIESTA

San Mateo's County Fiesta held last week proved to be a big success. Particularly good spot of the show was a pageant consisting of four hundred gaily costumed boys and girls. Saturday evening Bing Crosby entertained the thousands of patrons.

When a little girl asked him how to tell a little boy gold-fish from a little girl gold-fish, Prof. Anibal explained that the best way was to pour sulphuric acid into the bowl. In which case, he continued, if the fish was a little boy gold-fish, he would come floating to the top. When asked to explain what would happed, it the fish was a little girl gold-fish, he replied that in that case, SHE would come floating to the top.

It is reported that some one is to open an establishment where checks can be cashed, and change secured, the Menlo Grocery. This is due to the fact that the local bank will say good-bye to Menlo Park when it clases its doors tomorrow noon.

John Steinheimer, Menlo Junior College '34, was a visitor on the Menlo campus last week. He has returned to Stanford to complete work and his vocational plans are for commercial photography.

Banks Hold the Bag

Nearly 60 per cent of the national debt of $34,500,000,000 is owed to the banks of the nation. According to Senator Glass, a drop of ten per cent in the price of government bonds would put 90 per cent of the banks out of business. He says the New Deal forces the banks to buy.

Unemployment on Farms

Why has Washington refused to make an unemployment census? Because the greatest unemployment exists on the farms, and the gentleman farmer in the White House and his Brain Trust were deliberately throwing men out of work by their agricultural policies.

Redwood City Office

2529 BROADWAY

IN the 'Fifties and 'Sixties, Redwood City was a lumber town. From here was shipped up the bay to San Francisco, redwood timber logged from the surrounding hills. Thus Redwood City got its name.

Today this pioneer activity has been succeeded by other industries, such as cement manufacture, tanning, mushroom raising and commercial floriculture. These combine to make Redwood City, not merely a flourishing suburb, but an industrial center of fast growing importance. The dredging of a deep water channel and the building of dockage facilities, now provided for, will accelerate this development.

Through the establishment of a Redwood City office, American Trust Company hopes to take a progressive and constructive part in this community's bright future.

The opening of our office at 2529 Broadway will make conveniently available for you the services of this 82-year-old bank. These include commercial banking, trust, and savings services, and varied credit facilities for individuals, such as loans for buying or building homes, for home improvement and equipment, for purchasing automobiles, and for other worthwhile personal needs.
